In the event of a finding that the allegation has been proved, the report will set out the misconduct alleged, a brief summary of the evidence received, the grounds for the finding that the allegation has been proved, the penalty imposed, and the factors taken into account in deciding the penalty. A copy of the report will be sent to the member and to the Chairman of the Board and to any other party deemed to have a material interest in the outcome, though in the latter case the report may be censored. - c) Conditionally discharged, which means that no penalty is imposed, subject to the member fulfilling certain stipulated conditions including future good behaviour over a specified period of time. If the conditions are not met, a penalty may be imposed following a further hearing, which shall concern itself only with whether the conditions had been broken

In particular, a finding may be overturned in the light of new evidence; or where it is considered that the original hearing was not conducted fairly; or where the finding that an allegation has been proved was unreasonable in the light of the findings of fact. At the discretion of the member, the appeal may be presented in person or in writing, and the member may be represented by an advisor, friend or other representative.

11.5 Power not to hear the appeal

The Appeal Committee will firstly consider the written appeal from the member and if it considers it appropriate will enquire if there is any further evidence of such parties as it deems relevant. It will then decide whether sufficient grounds are shown to proceed with the appeal. The Appeal Committee is empowered to decide not to hear the appeal in which case the decision of the Disciplinary Committee will stand.

11.6 Procedure of appeal

If the Appeal Committee decide to hear the appeal, the member or representative may present the appeal in writing or orally, at his or her discretion. The burden of proof rests with the member. 11.7 Findings of the Appeal Committee in an appeal against a finding that an allegation has been proved

Where the appeal is against a finding that an allegation has been proved, the Appeal Committee may, after due consideration:

- a) Dismiss the appeal in which case the original findings of the Disciplinary Committee will stand

In the event of a finding that an allegation has been proved, the report will set out the misconduct alleged, a brief summary of the evidence received, the grounds for the finding that an allegation has been proved, the penalty imposed, and the factors taken into account in deciding the penalty. A copy of the report will be sent to the member and to the Chairman of the Board and to any other party deemed to have a material interest in the outcome, though in the latter case the report may be censored. Where the misconduct concerns the anti-doping policy, a copy may also be required to be sent to UK Sport.

12 Decision of Appeal Panel

The decision of the Appeal Committee of Bowls England shall be final.

13. Costs

If any appeal is abandoned within forty-eight hours of a scheduled hearing or is dismissed, either after a hearing or on the papers, then the Directors may, if they think appropriate, make an award of costs and expenses against the appellant in such sum as the Board of Directors considers appropriate. Until such time as the costs and expenses are paid the appellant shall forfeit all rights, entitlements and recognition under this Regulation and shall be deemed to be suspended.

14. Natural Justice

The rules of natural justice must apply at all times to all matters the subject of these regulations. Natural justice is procedural fairness comprising of two basic rules; first that no man is to be a judge in his own cause (nemo iudex in causa sua), and second that no man is to be condemned unheard (audi alteram partem). Natural justice is concerned with the manner in which the decision is taken rather than with whether or not the decision is correct.

The nature of Bowls England activities present many varied health and safety risks. It is essential therefore that we have effective health and safety management throughout the organisation.

Our aim is to achieve a level of excellence in managing health and safety. It is our intention to ultimately eliminate all work related accidents, injuries and illnesses to any person or damage to property that may result from our activities. Unsafe events, whether they result in property damage or injuries, represent failures in control systems. All such instances will be investigated in order to improve controls and measure performance.

Bowls England through the Board of Directors, Main Council, Committees, County Associations, Clubs, managers, supervisors and all employees are encouraged to develop a culture, which promotes a safe and healthy working environment; by working together we can create a safer and healthier environment for ourselves and others.

In order to achieve our objectives we will:-

- Recognise the vital importance of the continued commitment of all to the highest standards of health and safety, and ensure that they have the necessary skills and support to achieve this through :-
 - Information
 - Instruction
 - Training
- Actively promote participation and co-operation in establishing and maintaining measures to improve health and safety at all levels of the Association.

- Ensure through systematic risk assessment programmes, that risks associated with the Bowls England activities are identified and then eliminated, reduced or adequately controlled.
- Provide adequate finance and resources to successfully achieve our aims.
- Recognise that an effective health and safety culture and management system will benefit Bowls England, reducing financial and resource losses.
- Require that any company contracted to work for Bowls England applies health and safety standards that are fully consistent with our own.

Bowls England recognises that for this policy to be effective, the management of health and safety must be fully integrated into and treated with at least equal status to any other area of our work. Before making decisions at Board, Council and Committee level we will consider any health and safety implications associated with our actions.

The Chief Executive of Bowls England is appointed as adviser in relation to health and safety, to ensure that Members are informed of any health and safety ramifications of any decisions and keep the Company apprised of relevant changes to best practice and legislation.

In addition to providing technical advice to Bowls England, the Chief Executive must ensure that an annual report is produced on the overall safety performance of the Company, from which the Board of Directors will develop targets and objectives for the following year.
