

MEN'S PAIRS CHAMPIONSHIP

Introduced in 1912, the first winners were a pair from Clarence Park (Somerset). Only two pairs have successfully defended the title – Robert Slater and W W Buckell (Kent) in 1934, and a father-&-son duo, both named Arthur W Knowling (Sussex) in 1938. The only pair to notch up three wins were David Rhys Jones and David Bryant (Somerset), who did so in 1965, 1969 and 1975. Jamie Chestney was only 17, when he skipped his Norfolk colleague Ian Wynter to the title in 2004. The reigning (2019) champions are Jason Haskins and Roger Kendrick (Kent).
