Coaching Bursary Application Form

The Bowls England Coaching Bursary helps members of affiliated clubs to obtain a Coach Bowls qualification. Bowls England will pay 50 per cent of the relevant course fee for successful applicants. Payment will be made directly to the person/club that paid the course fee following confirmation from the course organiser that the course has been completed successfully.

Two applications per affiliated club will be supported in any two-year period.

All applicants are encouraged to contact their County Sport Partnership for details on additional funding that may be available to cover the cost of the course, either in full or in part.

The decision of the Bowls England Awards Panel on all applications will be final and no correspondence will be entered into.

For more information refer to document titled: 'Coaching Bursary – Frequently Asked Questions'.
